

Is it life or Passage.....

In a land of body and soul
A mans body and soul will
Take its toll,

Of all the marvels, gaieties,
Joys and grief;

And things that make him
Utter words of disbelief.

He'll play games of sports,
War, and love;

He'll pray for a good life
From the almighty above.

He will raise a family
With a wife, a girl, a boy;

And all his words
Will be words of joy.

He will age,
His children leave.

They will succeed and
Live long he'll believe.

His body will weary and
Hair gray;

And after all the good times
With games of sports, war
And love

He'll pass away.

Poem by James Gregory Maynard written approximately 1970.