

Trophy Wives

George Blakely

George & Irma

Poem results from Irma's questioning Geo.
About why he is not more interested in someone prettier and better built. He is more interested in the inner beauty than simply having a pretty bird on his sleeve.

Trophy wives

Rich old men

Living loves lies

In marital sin

Wed for ego

Wed for fame

Wed for a bankroll

Wed for a name

Unions go lost

Lawsuits prevail

A rich old men's cost

For a white wedding veil

Searching again

For a new trophy win

Old men and young girls

Finding marital sin
